1. An infantry unit with a strength of about one battalion is stationed in barracks not far from the market, and also on Ul. Chojnicka in Starogard (Q54/D38). A driving school was observed in this unit. Practice runs were observed daily in the town square.
2. A mortar unit is also stationed in the above mentioned barracks. Approximately eight to twelve trucks (Soviet type), towing 120 mm. two-wheeled mortars, round base plate, were seen outside the town on exercises. The trucks and mortars were of a new type and were observed for the first time in the spring of 1952.
3. Exercises in which small groups (four or five men) of signal troops took part were observed outside the town.
